In the purest traditions of NSW, the novelty event has been kept a closely guarded secret.

It will be revealed on Saturday to those unsuspecting athletes who train in a number of speculative endeavours throughout the year, hoping to second-guess the nature of this key event.

Guile, dexterity and cunning are all essential attributes of the perfect NSW Novelty Athlete.

The Event Convenor will act as referee and settle any disputes that may arise.
Mitch Robinson, NSW 2008 Sports Convenor, will perform final arbitration
